In order to develop and foster positive relationships with your child’s teacher through open and respectful communication, parents/guardians are expected to:

- Keep teachers up to date with issues which may have a positive or negative impact on their child’s behaviour or performance at school.
- Ensure positive relationships exist between School and home.
- Work with the School in ensuring that homework, assignment and project deadlines are met on time.
- Meet the financial obligations of the School associated with fees.
- Pay all School accounts and fees by the due date.
- Contact the School if there are financial difficulties which may impact on meeting your financial obligations.

Parent Code of Conduct

St Agatha’s School and Brisbane Catholic Education have a clear set of guidelines for all parents/guardians and students which can be obtained at the School’s office or on our website. All parents/guardians and volunteers are required to read the Volunteer Code of Conduct, and agree to follow all policies and procedures which the School has in place.

The various policies and procedures which exist at St Agatha’s School are to ensure that you and your child’s experience is a very positive one. By committing to a partnership built on respect and quality relationships, we are giving all parties involved in your child’s education every chance of success.

Volunteer Code of Conduct

St Agatha’s School and Brisbane Catholic Education have a clear set of guidelines for all parents/guardians and students which can be obtained at the School’s office or on our website. All parents/guardians and volunteers are required to read the Volunteer Code of Conduct, and agree to follow all policies and procedures which the School has in place.

The various policies and procedures which exist at St Agatha’s School are to ensure that you and your child’s experience is a very positive one. By committing to a partnership built on respect and quality relationships, we are giving all parties involved in your child’s education every chance of success.
Your Commitment as a Parent

Parents/ Guardians are expected to:

- Understand and accept the policy and procedures of the Parent Handbook.
- Respect the rights of all School staff, students and other parents/guardians.
- Speak positively about the school and School staff while in the presence of St Agatha’s students.
- Endeavour to develop and foster positive relationships with your child’s teacher through open and respectful communication.
- Support the ethos and religious culture of St Agatha’s School.
- Meet your financial obligations regarding school fees.

Respect the rights of all School staff, students and other parents/guardians.

Parents/ Guardians are expected to:

- Never under any circumstance directly reprimand or intimidate another parent’s child.
- Be mindful of your child’s teacher’s knowledge, judgements and professional experience when seeking clarity on a matter of concern.
- In all conversations and discussions remain calm and respectful.
- Not discuss conflict negotiations, outcomes and resolutions with other parents.
- Be a positive role model.

Support the School ethos and religious culture of St Agatha’s through:

- Participation in the Religious Education Programme.
- Displaying respect and reverence for the Prayer Life of the School.